First year students with Sister Waddle. At this time we do not have sufficient teachers to open the class for 2007. Can you pray with us for laborers for the Harvest?

Sister Sheila Waddle from Andover, Minnesota came to teach for 3 months in the Bible School. Not only was she rewarded with this experience of a lifetime, but the students were deeply grateful. Above you see the farewell from the students.

BIBLE SCHOOL TEACHERS NEEDED in Papua New Guinea

We are making a special appeal for workers for the Bible School in Papua New Guinea.

Short term teachers are needed.
Accommodation can be supplied
A teaching program is in place.

If you are interested you can contact us through our web site or contact Brother Lloyd Shirley at the Foreign Missions Division lshirley@upci.org
